

300 metres

328 yards

City of London

Underground stations

Farringdon 3 mins
Chancery Lane 4 mins
Holborn 10 mins
Barbican 10 mins

Railway stations

Farringdon 3 mins
City Thameslink 7 mins
Barbican 10 mins

1. Staple Inn dates from 1585. The building was once the wool staple, where wool was weighed and taxed. It survived the Great Fire of London. 2. The Mitre Tavern was originally built in 1546. 3. The dragon statues mark the boundaries of the City of London. 4. St Etheldreda's Church is the oldest Catholic Church in England, dating back to 1250

